GUIDELINES FOR VARIANCES

THE ZONING HEARING BOARD IS A QUASI-JUDICIAL BODY. THE DETERMINATION OF APPEALS AND/OR APPLICATIONS MADE TO THE BOARD WILL BE BASED ON LEGAL AND TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS CONTAINED IN THE SOUTH FAYETTE TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE AND THE PENNSYLVANIA MUNICIPALITIES PLANNING CODE. ANY APPLICANT WITHOUT A GOOD WORKING KNOWLEDGE OF THE ZONING ORDINANCE AND THE PLANNING CODE WOULD BE WELL ADVISED TO CONSULT WITH A REGISTERED LAND SURVEYOR AND AN ATTORNEY PRIOR TO PROCEEDING WITH THE APPLICATION OR APPEAL. WHILE SUCH PROFESSIONAL ASSISTANCE IS NOT SPECIFICALLY REQUIRED, (EXCEPT IN THE PREPARATION OF PLANS) IT MAY SAVE MUCH TIME AND UNNECESSARY EXPENSE IN ESTABLISHING A COURSE OF ACTION AND INSURING THAT PROPER PROCEDURES ARE FOLLOWED. FAILURE TO PROPERLY PREPARE OR PRESENT THE CASE MAY RESULT IN THE DENIAL OF THE REQUESTED ACTION.

VARIANCES

Variance provisions were established because the zoning requirements for any given district did not affect all properties equally. A mechanism was needed to permit minor changes in the requirements where a particular property was so unreasonably burdened that it could not be developed in strict conformity with the provisions of the Zoning Ordinance.

A variance is, and should be, difficult to obtain. So long as the property can be developed for some reasonable use (in conformity with the provisions of the Zoning Ordinance), the fact that it could produce more income or satisfy the needs or desires of the owner more thoroughly is not a sufficient basis for the award of a variance. Financial hardship will not be taken into consideration.

Unfortunately, many applicants assume that a variance is something designed to permit the highest and best use of, or the greatest financial return from, their property where the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance limit its use or value in some way. This is an incorrect perception of a variance, and one that causes the applicant a great deal of difficulty when a case is based on that reasoning. Even when the proposed variance would be beneficial to the community as a whole, the Zoning Hearing Board is not empowered to make adjustments to the Zoning Ordinance unless and until the requisite criteria for a variance are fully established by the applicant, and then only to the extent that it is the minimum variance that will relieve the hardship to the particular property.

The applicant must prove that the property specifically meets each of the five tested listed. If the applicant should fail to prove this, the Board will have no option but to deny the application. Because of many legal and technical considerations inherent in these cases, the applicant should seriously consider obtaining professional representation in the preparation and presentation of the case. A thoroughly prepared, professionally presented argument will substantially increase the likelihood of a satisfactory outcome for the applicant.

A variance may be granted if all of the following findings are made where relevant in a given case:

- 1. That there are unique physical circumstances or conditions, including irregularity, narrowness or shallowness of lot size or shape, or exceptional topographical or other physical conditions peculiar to the particular property and that the unnecessary hardship is due to such conditions and not the circumstances or conditions generally created by the provisions of this Ordinance in the neighborhood or district in which the property is located.

2. That because of such physical circumstances or conditions, there is no possibility that the property can be developed in strict conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance and that the authorization of a variance is therefore necessary to enable the reasonable use of the property.
3. That such unnecessary hardship has not been created by the appellant.
4. That the variance, if authorized, will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood or district in which the property is located, nor substantially or permanently impair the appropriate use or development of adjacent property, nor be detrimental to the public welfare.
5. That the variance, if authorized, will represent the minimum variance necessary to afford relief and will represent the least modification possible of the regulation in issue.
